About the College:

The first step is always a small step. The college was established in 1996 and since then has played an important role in the promotion of higher education among girls of Bindki and adjoining areas. The College started as an Arts Graduate College in 1996 and today it is a Post Graduate College with Post Graduation programme in three subjects in Humanities. Moreover, the under graduate course in Commerce is in the process of initiation from next session. During this two decade long journey the college has set up many milestones besides many other successes and achievements. It has been a journey with the vision & mission of quality & relevant education. It aims at preserving traditional knowledge and intellectual heritage as well as generating innovative activities in the field of higher education. Since its establishment in 1996, the College has not looked back. It has scaled new heights under the joint venture of various learned and eminent Principals, faculties, staff and students. Government Girls P.G. College, Bindki, Fatehpur looks forward to continue its vision and mission of providing accessibility and imparting 'quality education' to the girls of Bindki and adjoining areas.. In a span of 22 years, the College has progressed leaps and bound to emerge as a leading centre of higher education.

Theme of the Seminar:

The Digital India programme is a flagship programme of the Government of India with a vision to transform India into a digitally empowered society and knowledge economy. E-governance initiatives in India took a broader dimension in the mid 1990s for wider sectoral applications with emphasis on citizen-centric services. The major ICT initiatives of the Government included, inter alia, some major projects such as railway computerization, land record computerization, etc. which focused mainly on the development of information systems.

Later on, many states started ambitious individual e-governance projects aimed at providing electronic services to citizens. Though these e-governance projects were citizen-centric, they could make less than the desired impact due to their limited features. The isolated and less interactive systems revealed major gaps that were thwarting the successful adoption of e-governance along the entire spectrum of governance. They clearly pointed towards the need for a more comprehensive planning and implementation for the infrastructure required to be put in place, interoperability issues to be addressed, etc. to establish a more connected government.

e-Kranti : National e-Governance Plan 2.0

The national level e-Governance programme called National e-Governance Plan was initiated in 2006. There were 31 Mission Mode Projects under National e-Governance Plan covering a wide range of domains, viz. agriculture, land records, health, education, passports, police, courts, municipalities, commercial taxes, treasuries etc. 24 Mission Mode Projects have been implemented and started delivering either full or partial range of envisaged services. For more details click here. Considering the shortcomings in National e-Governance Plan that included lack of integration amongst Government applications and databases, low degree of government process reengineering, scope for leveraging emerging technologies like mobile, cloud...etc, Government of India has approved the e-Kranti programme recently with the vision of "Transforming e-Governance for Transforming Governance".

All new and on-going eGovernance projects as well as the existing projects, which are being revamped, should now follow the key principles of e-Kranti namely 'Transformation and not Translation', 'Integrated Services and not Individual Services', 'Government Process Reengineering (GPR) to be mandatory in every MMP', 'ICT Infrastructure on Demand', 'Cloud by Default', 'Mobile First', 'Fast Tracking Approvals', 'Mandating Standards and Protocols', 'Language Localization', 'National GIS (Geo-Spatial Information System)', 'Security and Electronic Data Preservation'.

The portfolio of Mission Mode Projects has increased from 31 to 44 MMPs. Many new social sector projects namely Women and Child Development, Social Benefits, Financial Inclusion, Urban Governance, eBhasha...etc have been added as new MMPs under e-Kranti.
